Subject Re: Recent statement on the reported breaking of the Israel-Gaza ceasefire

Dear Rt Hon David Lammy,

I am writing to seek urgent clarification regarding your recent statement on the reported breaking of the Israel-Gaza ceasefire and the apparent divergence between your position and the statement issued by Number 10.

Given the significance of this issue and the level of public concern, it is essential that the official stance is made clear.

Reports from multiple media outlets indicate that the ceasefire has been broken, yet the response from the government appears to differ from your own.

As Foreign Secretary, your perspective carries weight, and I would appreciate an explanation of whether your statement aligns with Number 10's official position and what steps, if any, you believe should be taken in response.

In a matter of such grave international importance, clarity and consistency are crucial. Only then can we look towards a resolution to create lasting peace and a two-state solution. I look forward to your response.

Yours sincerely,

Tom Morrison
